

Technology of carrying information is ever-changing. The rationale for legal deposit is not.

-A framework of a technology-adaptive legal deposit act

Vebjørn Søndersrød, legal adviser, National library of Norway

My presentation will contain the following elements:

- How the Norwegian legal deposit act was made technology-adaptive, and consequences of this
- Legal challenges provided by the need to collect internet-documents
- Will a technology-adaptive legal deposit act survive the future?
- Digital Rights Management and preservation of protected works, and the recent amendments to the Norwegian copyright act; a legal access to make copies is not necessarily enough per se
